THE PREACHING OF THE WORD

THE VARIOUS INTERESTING SERVICES OF YESTERDAY.

Rev. Mr. Murray Preaches in the First Presbyterian—Rev. Mr. Patterson's Missionary Talks at Westminster—New Members Received at West Market Street—The Sermon at the Friend's Church.

Rev. W. A. Murray, a recent graduate of Union Seminary, preached two sermons in the First Presbyterian church here yesterday. Mr. Murray is now doing missionary work for the Presbytery in Alleghany county. He is a native of this city and known by all our people.

The text last night was, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?"

This text presents two great thoughts: First, the provision for mankind of a great salvation. Second, how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation.

This is a great salvation. We read in the Old Testament the revelations. They help us to understand the new. Our plan of salvation is clearly evoked in the New Testament in its fulfillment.

Man is in great need of such a salvation, and the greatness of such a salvation as is provided, strikes one with peculiar force when he reflects upon its origin—within the great council chamber of the Great I Am—its origin was with God Himself.

God spoke into existence this great world of ours. He said "Let there be light, and there was light." All things created He and at last created man from the dust of the earth. Perfect in his make-up; fashioned after God Almighty Himself, made He him. Yet, together with Eve in the Garden of Eden, tempted by his satanic majesty in the form of a serpent, man disobeyed the command of his Maker; ate of the fruit of the forbidden tree; made himself amenable to the law, and brought into the world, grim death. Methinks I can see in my mind the Great Council called together. Man's fall is discussed by the Father upon His throne surrounded by the angels and His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ who says: "Father, I will give myself." And God said: "I will give my only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him shall live." Thus originated the plan of salvation.

II. The great perfectness of the plan of salvation. It is perfect. Man is imperfect. His plans, his work, all that he does is imperfect. But not so with God. Being perfect Himself, His work is also perfect. The plan must be perfect. In order that it might be, it must emanate from God Himself, and if it could have been otherwise provided for, Christ would not have died to have perfected the plan, and provided a scheme. The criminal about to be executed is filled with an unexplainable feeling of gratitude when a pardon reaches the officer and his life is saved. No less gratitude should we have to our Heavenly Father, who sent His Son to die for us and save us from eternal death. Not only this, but this pardon makes of us new creatures in our Lord Jesus Christ. It changes our character and our life, and we are adopted into the family of God. We are sons of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. We know that we must be prepared for the place. More still, awaits the redeemed soul. Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived of so great a salvation.

III. Great in its glory for God. An invention is great because of its usefulness. Whitney and Fulton are great because of their useful inventions. It should be so. Should we not give God praise and glorify His name for the greatest scheme ever invented—the scheme of salvation.

IV. It is great in its power to save. It is just as great today as it was when Jesus said to the thief on the cross, "This day thou shalt be with me in paradise." It is powerful. Powerful because it taxed even the power of God Almighty Himself. How shall we escape if we neglect this salvation? God in His wisdom could give this question no answer. Can you?

Two questions: 1. "What must I do to be saved?" 2. "What must I do to be lost?" Nothing. Nothing. Absolutely nothing.

"How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?"

A very pretty male quartette was sung yesterday morning at West Market church by Messrs. R. M. Crawford, A. H. Alderman, Dr. J. S. Betts and Dr. Charles Scott.

Dr. J. C. Rowe received two new members by baptism and one by certificate at the morning service yesterday. He also announced that he had received three by certificate during the past week. This makes the number received by certificate and baptism during the year 71, there being quite a coincidence in the fact that the same number was received in the same way last year.

The public is cordially invited to attend all the sessions of the Conference this week.

The meeting in progress at the Friends' church continues interesting and helpful. The services Sunday were attended by large congregations. In the 11 a. m. service a spontaneous expression of prayer and praise preceded a Bible Reading by Mr. Lee. The sermon by Mr. Chilson was short but replete with truth, and the pathos of the preacher affected many hearts. In the evening Mr. Chilson's discourse was based upon the parable of the Prodigal Son. He dug fresh gold from that oft-explored mine of Christian teaching. Services daily at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. until future notice.

Rev. B. C. Patterson, a missionary to China, of Augusta county, Va., preached in Westminster Presbyterian church yesterday morning and evening. He has been in China nine years and is now at home on a vacation. His talks were of course on missionary subjects. In last night's talk he showed how God overruled events for the furtherance of the gospel. He spoke of the political conditions and happenings in China and explained how they had resulted in the increased spread of missionary work. He went into the present outbreak and expressed the opinion that it would result likewise in the spread of the gospel, this time over the entire kingdom.

Mrs. Patterson, his wife, will visit Greensboro soon. She is a practicing physician and uses her profession in the missionary work. One of the societies of Westminster is named in honor of Mrs. Patterson.

Large congregations attended both services. Mr. Patterson left this morning to attend the Woman's Missionary Union of the Orange Presbytery at Burlington.

Insurance Sparks.

Mr. John M. Young, special agent for the Georgia Home, is spending the day in the city.

Mr. Geo. Goodrich, special agent for the Home Fire Insurance Company of New York, is here.

Mr. D. C. Waddell has hanging in his office a picture which he calls the "Special Agent." It is a large "yellow kid," with his traveling satchel, on which Mr. Waddell chalks up the name of the special agent who happens to be in town each day.

There is a lively old time among the life agents. There are several in town who are hustlers for business, and they are making things hum. Competition is well up along "in G."

Mr. W. A. Danner, of Richmond, representing the general agency of the Equitable, spent the afternoon in the city.

To Enlist Negroes.

Mr. John N. Pulliam, of Rock Level, enlisted this morning for the artillery service and will be sent to Fort Monroe, Va. Messrs. Henry Wells and Albert L. Giddome, of Martinsville, Va., enlisted for infantry service and will be sent to the Philippines.

Instructions were received at the recruiting office Saturday night to enlist negroes for the Philippines.

Dr. W. W. Rowe will conduct Young People's Meeting of West Washington Street Baptist church this evening at 7:30. Cordial invitation extended to all.

M'CALLA-COLWELL QUARREL

THE FORMER WAS NOT COURT-MARTIALED AT ALL.

Lieutenant Colwell Made Allegations Regarding His Superior Officer and Admiral Remy Had to Order an Investigation After the Thing Had Become so Public. By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The Navy department officers do not credit the report from Manila that Capt. McCalla was court-martialed. At the Bureau of Navigation it was said that Capt. McCalla and Lieutenant Commander Colwell, his executive officer, had a controversy which led the latter to make certain statements about his superior officer. The trouble extended so far and became so public that Admiral Remy a week ago ordered a court of inquiry to investigate the allegations of Lieutenant Commander Colwell, regarding Capt. McCalla. It was in no sense a court-martial, the Navy department officers say. Admiral Remy has not informed the Navy department.

Telegraphic Briefs Today.

Miss Maude Hancock, who has spent the past seven years as a missionary in China under the auspices of the China Inland Mission, is expected to arrive in Greensboro this week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. M. Barber. Miss Hancock left China a month ago after two or three narrow escapes from death at the hands of the Boxers.

To Attend Orange Presbytery.

A number of persons went to Burlington today to attend the Presbyterian Union of the Orange Presbytery which meets today. Among those going from this place were Mrs. C. H. Wiley of Winston, and Mrs. Robert Denny of Reidsville, who have been visiting in the city; Messdames A. G. Rankin, T. G. McLean, W. P. Beall and J. B. Minor. They had killed three deer, besides quantities of smaller game.

Mrs. Lamb's Flower Exhibit.

Mrs. Lamb still has her beautiful chrysanthemum show open. She has a large quantity of these beautiful flowers, and many people visit her gardens daily. The admission fee is only five cents, and the proceeds go to missionary work.

DEATH OF MRS. McCULLOUGH.

Passed Away Saturday Night at the Extreme Age of 84 Years.

Saturday night, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. George S. Sergeant, on Arlington street, Mrs. John McCullough died, at the extreme age of 84 years. She had been in feeble health for some time and the end was not unexpected. The funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Sergeant and were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith and Rev. C. E. Hodgkin. The remains were interred in Greene Hill cemetery yesterday afternoon, and were followed to their last resting place by a large number of relatives and friends.

Mrs. McCullough was one of the landmarks of this section, being a native, and having lived here her entire life. She was the widow of John McCullough, one of the best known men, in his day, in the county. She was a member of Westminster Presbyterian church, and a woman of lovable Christian character. A large number of relatives survive her. She was the mother of Mrs. G. S. Bradshaw, Mrs. George Sergeant, Mrs. W. E. Forbis, Messrs. Logan and Robert McCullough, and Mrs. J. H. Shields, of Orange county, and a sister of Esquire J. M. Wolfe.

FOUR BILLS SAYS MR. HANNA

CONGRESS WILL TAKE UP AND PASS IMPORTANT ONES.

The Senator Thinks That the Canal Bill, the Army Bill, the Reduction of Taxes and the Ship Subsidy Bill Will All Get Through—Secretary Hay Has Removed Treaty Disabilities.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 19.—Senator Hanna said today: "Four important bills will be considered by Congress. They are the Nicaragua canal, the army bill, the reduction of taxes, and the Frye subsidy bill." He said these will doubtless all pass. He also said that he would probably take as much interest in the ship subsidy bill as in any and sincerely hoped that it would pass. He added that he understood that the state department during the recess had been able to do away with many of the treaty difficulties. Secretary Hay has consulted with the Costa Rican government with which there was an embarrassing treaty and has been able to satisfactorily arrange for the construction of such clauses as stood in the way.

FREIGHT WRECK THIS MORNING.

Six Cars Smashed But Nobody Injured—No Cause Assigned.

Railroad wrecks are all the go now, and while there have not been any serious ones in this section lately some inconvenient ones have occurred.

A freight train was wrecked early this morning in a cut about three miles from town, near Mr. John E. McKnight's farm. Six cars were demolished and their contents scattered up and down the track. No one was injured, although the crew was severely shaken up. The wrecking outfit from Salisbury passed through about eight o'clock this morning and soon had the debris sufficiently cleared away to permit the passage of the early trains which reached here about nine o'clock.

No cause has been assigned for the disaster.

To Visit Dr. Stratford.

Mr. W. O. Stratford, accompanied by Mr. Jno. Trolinger, left Saturday night for New York where they will visit Dr. Henry Stratford, who is a surgeon in the city hospital, at present being stationed on Blackwell's Island. Dr. Stratford is a Greensboro boy and is achieving deserved success in his chosen profession.

To Knights of Pythias.

It is earnestly requested that the officers and members of Greensboro Lodge No. 80 K. of P. meet in their Castle Hall promptly at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a candidate for the second rank and several applications to be acted upon. All Knights are cordially invited. By order of the C. C. C. C. McLEAN, K. of P. S. November 19.

COMPLAINT AGAINST GERMANS.

VERY DESPICABLE ACTION CHARGED TO THEM.

Count Waldersee Says He Has Restored Order—The Ministers at Peking are not Satisfied With the Punishment of the Princes Responsible for the Outrages.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Peking, Nov. 17.—There is still considerable complaint about the actions of the German soldiers in the neighborhood of Chou Chou, and missionaries have now taken the matter up. Some charges are to the effect that soldiers have outraged women and demanded money of Chinese officials of villages. In reply to the complaint of the missionaries Count Von Waldersee declared he had stopped the looting in the south and restored order.

The ministers are not satisfied with the punishment of the Chinese princes and others responsible for the Boxer outrages. They say that while the punishment may be severe in some cases, it should be remembered that these were men responsible for all the loss of life and countenanced all sorts of outrages.

Oak Ridge Piles up a Score on Madison.

Special to The Telegram.

Oak Ridge, Nov. 17.—The Oak Ridge football team met the Madison team here today and piled up a score of 57 to 0 in a pretty game of two 20-minute halves. Oak Ridge plays Horner in Durham next Thursday and the A. & M. College in Raleigh on Friday. After these games she will get in shape for her Thanksgiving game against Guilford College. This game will be in Greensboro, and we suspect it will be a very lively contest.

Conference Reporters.

Miss Mamie Bays, of Charlotte, will report the Conference proceedings for the Charlotte Observer. Miss Bays has done this class of work for some time and is an expert.

Rev. N. H. D. Wilson of the North Carolina Conference will report for the News and Observer. Mr. R. M. Phillips will handle the news for the Post.

Mr. Adams, the traveling correspondent of the Christian Advocate, of this city, will report for that paper and the Record. Mr. W. I. Underwood will assist the Telegram in looking after the work.

Death of Mrs. Chandler.

Mrs. W. J. Chandler died Saturday night at her home on Morehead avenue. She had been sick a long time, of consumption. The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon by Dr. Livingston Johnson, of whose church the deceased was a devoted member.

Mrs. Chandler was about fifty years of age. She leaves a husband, a daughter, who is herself quite sick, and a son.

Mr. Postell Resigns.

Mr. T. W. Postell, who has been clerk in the McAdoo Hotel for some time, resigned Saturday night. His place is being temporarily filled by Mr. C. A. Pike.

Important to Reception Committee.

It is important that every member of the Reception Committee be at the depot to meet the train from the South tonight, and all the trains tomorrow and Wednesday. A number of changes will be made tonight, so please be on hand promptly. C. A. BRAY, Chairman.

Two freight trains ran together on the main line of the Savannah, Florida and Western Railroad, one mile west of Thomasville, Ga., yesterday morning, and caused a bad wreck. The fireman on one engine, a negro, named Floyd, was instantly killed. No others were seriously hurt.

The little two-year-old daughter of R. W. Bennett, of Elsie, Ga., was burned to death last night. The child had been left in a room by herself and her clothing caught fire.

A Casas Grande, Mex., dispatch says that in an attack on the Mormon colony at Pascheco, 12 Indians and four Mormons were killed. Several were wounded on both sides. A band of Apaches attempted to stampede a bunch of cattle belonging to the Mormon settlers.

Man Who Killed Himself at Marion Saturday Afternoon Was Liked at High Point—Manufacturers Who Want to Locate in the South—Opening up New Streets.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

High Point, Nov. 18.—New streets are to be opened here running through the lands of Abram Jones and Dr. Jones. Messrs. R. A. Wheeler, J. C. Campbell and W. M. Allred compose the committee to lay off and adjust damages resulting therefrom.

Mr. D. L. Clark, a High Point artist of reputation has just finished an oil painting of the late Beeson Armfield, father of our townsman, Mr. W. J. Armfield, Sr. Those who knew the late Mr. Armfield pronounce it a very striking likeness.

Mr. Geo. T. Leach, owner of the Bellevue Hotel and other property here, will erect a modern dwelling on the corner of Thomasville and College streets.

It is more than probable that Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk, who has served the M. P. Church as pastor so creditably the last five years, will not be returned here next year, which will be regretted very much by his host of friends.

The Epworth League held an entertainment at the M. E. church tonight. The exercises were especially interesting.

Mr. W. R. Evans, who killed himself in a hardware store at Marion Saturday afternoon, was operator here several weeks ago during the sickness of Mr. Mabry. The writer had occasion to be with Mr. Evans several times during his stay here and found him to be a man of pleasant address.

Mrs. J. B. Harve left yesterday on the noon train for New York City, where she joins her husband who is on his way here from South America.

Miss Ida Beeson, of Greensboro, spent today here with the family of her mother.

Mr. Mabry, operator for the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company here, has resigned to accept a position to operate a private wire in Concord.

Barber chairs are now being manufactured here by Mr. P. W. Kirkman, proprietor High Point Upholstering Company. They will sell for $58 each. This is a new departure in the furniture line and is certainly a very creditable line of goods.

A gentleman of this place has a letter from a business man North who desires to locate in the South and would most probably move his plant to High Point if the proper encouragement is given. He is now a large cotton manufacturer, but intends moving his mill the first of the year.

At the home of Mr. Dougan Embler this week, Mr. A. D. Craven and Miss Lizzie Payne, of near this place, were united in marriage, Mr. W. A. Mendenhall, officiating.

Plans have matured for the construction of a telephone line from here to Progress, a distance of seven miles.

Petitions for signatures have been drawn up by the Jr. O. U. A. M. of this place for circulation in the several councils in the State to be presented to the General Assembly in January next asking that body to legislate in behalf of a mild compulsory educational law for the State of North Carolina.

At every service the Baptist church is crowded to hear the word of truth presented by Rev. L. R. Pruett, of Charlotte, who is assisting pastor Richardson.

A REMARKABLE VOTER.

A Southern Gentleman Who Was Unable to Secure Transportation Home to Vote for Mr. Bryan, Walked 80 Miles to Do So. To the Editor of The Telegram:

When a man votes according to his conscientious convictions for the principles he thinks are right, and for political morality, as he understands it, every right thinking person should admire that man's course. We mention the following circumstance, the facts of which are personally known to us:

One of our Southern customers, away from his native city where he was registered, being deeply impressed with Mr. Bryan's espousal of the cause of the people, being conscientiously opposed to the present foreign policy regarding the Philippines, but being unable to secure transportation home to vote, walked the entire distance, 80 miles, in all in order to exercise his right of franchise.

In our judgment, a section of the country controlled by men of such conscientious convictions is safe to trust with matters of legislation and governmental questions affecting the whole country.

RICHARD J. BIGGS, Baltimore, Md.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been too low and are just now getting reasonable. ## A LAND OF CONTRASTS

An Inside Glimpse of the Social Life of Mexico.

Many Live from Hand to Mouth, But the Majority Put On No Airs—Simplicity and Good Taste Rules.

This is proverbially the land of contrasts. There is a class living from hand to mouth, with recurrent visits to the pawnshops, which hard-headed Asturians or north country Spaniards manage, and there is a great majority who live on what they earn and make no fuss in social show. The average young Mexican marries before he is 25, and he does not take his bride to a boarding-house; she does not wear diamonds and a sealskin sack, or affect to be wealthy by any manifestation of clothes. She dresses neatly and becomingly, and it is to her own little furnished house that her young husband takes her.

The Mexican, the typical Mexican, loves his home. He has not just the word for the place, for he calls it poetically his "hogar," or fireside, and he has no fireplace. But it is usually a one-story house, surrounding a patio, or courtyard, wherein grow flowers, where often there is a fountain and singing birds engaged make music in the morning hours. The babies come along with almost astronomical punctuality, and they are welcome. When Allah built this world he had in mind just such genuine homes as these. He never imagined a boarding-house as a home for young married folk.

I know something of intimate Mexico, and so have had occasion to note that courtesy, everyday politeness, is a universal article. You do not cut a man, says the correspondent of the Boston Herald, because he happens to live in a little house, nor abjectly bow down to some wealthy owner of a great mansion and master of many servants. Essentially, the Latin, and therefore the Mexican, is democratic in public. Cabinet ministers shake hands with poor clerks, and bow to their wives if they happen to know them. The high mightiness of the social magnates in a small New England manufacturing town reveals an instinct for snobbery which, Allah be praised, is not included in our daily reckoning in Mexico.

The president here is a pretty big man, I assure you. He holds power four long years, and reelection is customary. He is a ruler to the full extent of the word, but he drives about in a carriage no better than that of many a prosperous merchant. His personal staff is not composed of generals, as in some Central American countries, but and he is accessible to anyone who has is reduced to the absolutely necessary, a sound reason for taking his time.

I don't want to paint Mexico as a social paradise; it is not. But although there are heartburnings and social rivalries in the now cosmopolitan capital crowded with foreigners of many nations, the Mexican social life, that of the best people, is really simple and well sustained. The real old families put on no airs; their great homes are ample; their dinners good, their taste cultivated by travel and observation, and the poor relation sits down unabashed at meal time with his fortunate relative.

How do I know this? Because I have dined with many fine old Mexican families. Enter the poor relation, an aunt we will suppose, who has made a marriage that did not turn out well financially. She wears modest black, her gown is of cheap stuff, made at home, probably. She is greeted with hugs and kisses, and enters into the talk of the family unconstrainedly, giving her views of matters in general, and shows pleasure at seeing her nieces handsomely gowned. Sometimes they take her to the theater with them or to drive in the family carriage.

People are not ashamed of poor relations; they are part of the great scheme of social life, and the Mexican has too much of the Moor not to know that fate rules our destinies, and that to one man is given riches and to another poverty. So it has been decreed. And the Mexican usually has a big, warm heart inside his anatomy.

Old people (well, this is the paradise of grandpas and grandmas, a fine old Spanish and oriental way) are always revered. Their opinions are sought; they are the "old guard," and respected accordingly. One consults them on important family matters, the daughter's engagement, the profession for the boy, the naming of the babies, etc. For them the favorite chair or corner, the siesta undisturbed, the preferred dish at table, and, when they die, you may be sure they are mourned sincerely.

Mexicans have no notion of being ashamed to show publicly a warm affection for their aged fathers and mothers. The great lawyer meets his white-haired mother in the street and kisses her hand deferentially, and he does the same with his father. Big, handsome girls, fashionably clad, meet their father in the street, and, taking his hand, kiss it. The family tie is very strong among the people who have the right idea of home and family.

NERVE FOOD

If you have neuralgia, Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil will feed the nerve that is crying for food—it is hungry—and set your whole body going again, in a way to satisfy nerve and brain with your usual food. That is cure.

If you are nervous and irritable, you may only need more fat to cushion your nerves—you are probably thin—and Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil will give you the fat, to begin with.

Cure, so far as it goes. Full cure is getting the fat you need from usual food, and Scott's emulsion will help you to that.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

Contagious Blood Poison

There is no poison so highly contagious, so deceptive and so destructive. Don't be too sure you are cured because all external signs of the disease have disappeared, and the doctor says you are well. Many persons have been dosed with Mercury and Potash for months or years, and pronounced cured—to realize when too late that the disease was only covered up—

LIKE THE PRICE OF LIBERTY.

The Telegram has recently said something of the necessity for a united, persistent, intelligent and continuous action in behalf of Greensboro's industrial and commercial future. This was not said as a disparagement of what has been done or is being done. It was said with a view of stimulating still greater efforts. We find that the papers of other thriving towns are talking along the same line. It is recognized that the struggle for supremacy between rival towns in given sections of the South will be close. In a speech before the Chamber of Commerce of Charlotte last week its president, Mr. S. Wittkowsky, made a speech, in which he said:

Charlotte points with pride to the prestige she has attained as a commercial mart and manufacturing centre, and while there is no immediate danger of any other city in this or adjoining State wresting that laurel from her brow, yet I venture to assert, after an active business career of over a third of a century, during which I contributed not a little to Charlotte's prestige, that it would be the height of folly to hug the delusion to our bosom that we are invincible, as the price of obtaining and maintaining your prestige is like that of liberty, "eternal vigilance" as well as push, and the keeping not only up with, but abreast of the times.

Mr. Wittkowsky then goes on to enumerate certain things of a public nature that the people of Charlotte ought to have done. We submit that if Charlotte, the leading town of the State is thus anxiously looking after its future, which appears so well assured, that Greensboro most certainly cannot afford not to look carefully, systematically and diligently after hers. Gentlemen of the city, what move?

Our best beloved contemporary, the Henderson Gold Leaf, remarks:

Since Messrs. Carr and Simmons and Messrs. Foushee and Busbee have exchanged kindly greetings and gracefully accepted the situation, Mr. James S. Manning, Webster's Weekly, Greensboro Telegram and a few others ought at least to acquiesce and let up about "the machine," charging methods of unfairness, dishonesty and corruption.

And we remark that, as of old, there are people going about looking for motives in their neighbor's eyes who carry whole saw mills in their own. If any one will take the trouble to look at the page of the Henderson Gold Leaf from which the above squib was taken he will find that it contains between fifteen and twenty editorial jabs, more or less nagging at the defeated side. The Telegram remarked in substance, the day after the election, that the party organization was unfairly used in Mr. Simmons' behalf. Since then it has said nothing except one time, when asked a question. It never accused dishonesty or corruption. It charged unfairness, and one of Mr. Simmons' prominent supporters has since practically admitted the charge over his own signature. In this connection we would take occasion to say that what we said was in a general way of conditions over the State. It has come to our ears that it is being circulated that we made an attack on Mr. Seales of this county. This is not true. We had no reference to Mr. Seales. We think that he acted conscientiously in the whole matter. He understands our position exactly. There is no use wrangling further over the matter. We have said so much for the benefit of our esteemed but noisy contemporary, the Gold Leaf, and incidentally those who have misconstrued our position.

All the talk of downing Tammany and reforming New York City has had a curious effect. Just as the forces were getting in line, Mr. Richard Croker bobs up and says he'll do that reforming himself. Down in the southern section of the State where the great number of colored divines makes the competition between them very close, some of the brethren often form combinations by which the efforts of some objectionable brother in the ministry is sidetracked for his own good and for the convenience of others. Such an one, who had previously been quite active and was bearing his humiliation pretty badly, attended a big meeting which was in progress, and took a seat in the rear. After the sermon the officiating minister called upon a brother high up in the amen corner to pray. As he did so and the congregation were getting on their feet, up sprang over little deposed preacher in the rear of the church, who could stand the enforced silence no longer, and shouted, "No, sar, I'll pray dat pra'r myself!" And he did. Will brother Croker be so successful?

A report says that His Excellency, the Governor, has formed a partnership with a young Mr. Gore of Wilmington, and will begin to practice law in that town immediately after the expiration of his term as Governor. Governor Russell is, it is said by men who ought to know, an uncommonly able lawyer, and we shall be delighted to see him settle down and become a decent and useful citizen.

DOGS SUFFER FROM WORRY.

Many Cases of Nervous Prostration Reported as Result of Grand Army Reunion.

The grand army reunion and the Labor day parade have left some sad remembrances along Michigan avenue in the form of a regular epidemic of canine nervous prostration, says the Chicago Tribune. The pet and toy dogs which have been lording it over the common kind along the Lake Front park are now many of them under the care of veterinary surgeons for most aggravated cases of snappishness and nerves. Following upon the excitement and crowds of the reunion and parade came the hot spell, and then the dogs betrayed symptoms which were feared by many to be hydrophobia. Their usually kind and placid dispositions were decidedly soured and they became really dangerous.

At one time three pet dogs from one block were under the care of the doctors, with their feminine owners weeping nearby and begging their lives be spared. Had they been ordinary, plain dogs their deaths would have been deemed forthwith.

The veterinary in charge said that he had had at least a dozen cases of the kind in the space of a few days and found that in every instance the patients were suffering from overexcitement, overfeeding and heat.

IS THE GIRAFFE GOING?

The Long-Necked Animal Seems to Be Following the North American Bison.

Cosmopolitan sportsmen who have hunted in the different countries of the world agree that the giraffe is one of the most highly prized game animals of the world. It is generally believed, though, that this animal is almost extinct. Once it was quite abundant in South Africa, but it was ruthlessly slaughtered by the native hunters there until it has become a rare animal there.

A writer to the Field, of London, asserts that giraffe are still to be found in considerable numbers in Angola, Portuguese West Africa, and that it is likely to be many years before these splendid animals are exterminated. The giraffe is known to the Angola natives as ondu. Its range does not extend in this region beyond the fifteenth degree of south latitude.

It is hoped that these animals may be preserved in their native lair. It would be a grand work for the international organization for the preservation of African big game which was recently formed to exert itself for the preservation of this animal.

CLERKS' INSURANCE.

Successful Operation of Departmental Aid Association in Government Offices.

"A few years ago," said the secretary of a departmental aid association, reports the Washington Star, "one of the abuses of departmental life was the almost constant passing around of the hat for collections to aid the widow and family of a clerk who had died in service."

"Very often the deceased had been for many years in the service of the government and at his death it would be found that he left scarcely enough to bury him, and sometimes not that. And this would be true of clerks in the higher grades. It made a clerk appear mean to refuse to contribute with the others, though he may have had but a speaking acquaintance with the deceased. To those on the outside it would not seem that these contributions would be made sufficiently often to amount to a drain, but they were, and I have known of three clerks dying within a month in one large division. I recall the chief clerk of a bureau dying suddenly, and his widow did not have enough money to pay for his laying out. The word was passed around in the bureau that the chief expected the clerks to contribute liberally, and most of them handed in from $3 to $5, but there was a strong undercurrent of kicking."

"In all of the departments the soliciting of money for any purpose is strictly forbidden now. All have their own benevolent associations, which are encouraged by the chiefs. These associations have by-laws, constitutions and officers. Their object is to furnish to the clerks who are members an insurance which will be immediately available on death. In fact, the money is turned over to the heirs on the same day that the association is notified of the death of the member, and this ready money is often all that the widow or the heirs have in the world."

"The Pension Bureau association publishes a complete pamphlet report annually; others render a report to the board of directors only. The annual receipts from the assessments of the Pension Bureau association are about $6,600, and $250 is paid on death to the beneficiary. Last year it lost about 25 members, and $36,000 has been disbursed since its formation in 1891. The assessment is 25 cents, and the membership is 1,060. Clerks do not lose their membership in these associations if they retire from their respective departments, voluntarily or involuntarily, as long as they pay their assessments. The assessments range from 25 cents to $1."

"In the post office department the assessment is 50 cents, and the amount paid varies from $200 to $275, according to the number of members."

"The treasury department has two aid associations, one of which pays $250 on the death of a member and the assessment is $1."

"The interior departments association numbers about 900, and it was organized in 1895. About 100 members have since died, each receiving at death $200, while over $20,000 has been disbursed."

"The beneficial association of the war department has recently been reorganized, having been in existence 14 years. It has a membership of 430, the assessment is $1, the amount paid at death $250, and about $5,600 has already been disbursed."

Symptoms Caused by Anger.

A study of anger from experiences in about 2,000 cases, collected from reliable observers, has been made by G. Stanley Hall. The causes were many and various, often being very trivial, and the physical sensations accompanying it differed greatly with the individual. Flushing was very general, although pallor was a characteristic in 27 per cent. of the cases. The heart beats were violent, several cases of death from rupture of this organ being reported, and there were sometimes peculiar sensations in mouth and throat, sometimes dizziness or faintness, frequently tears, and generally copious salivation, which might produce "frothing at the mouth." Common sounds were animal-like cries in children, oaths and threats in adults, while in many cases the throat was paralyzed, and there was inability to speak above a whisper, or without crying or trembling. Butting with the head, biting and scratching are noticeable in childish anger.—Stray Stories.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mrs. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: 'I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim.' No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

8095—Child's Dress.
4, 6, 8 and 10 years.

CHILD'S DRESS, NO. 8095.

This dainty little frock is developed in Wedgewood blue albatross, trimmed with white lace and blue ribbons.

It is made with a fitted body lining which closes in the center back. The lining is faced to a square yoke back and front with white lace over taffeta, and the albatross adjusted to fit smooth over the shoulders and under the arms. The fullness is gathered, arranged at the lower edge of the yoke and drawn down straight to the belt at the back, but slightly bloused in front. The epaulettes are tucked and stitched about half way, from which point the fullness forms a ruffle that stands out over the sleeves. The ribbon is applied straight along the inside of the epaulettes and twisted at the lower edges of the yoke, tying in a small bow at the left side. The neck is finished with a collar surmounted by a frill of lace. The epaulettes are also lace trimmed.

The one-piece sleeves are gathered on the shoulders and drawn in at the wrist with elastic run through them. The three-piece skirt is made with four backward turning tucks at each side of the front gore. The tucks are stitched and flatly pressed to within a few inches of the bottom, where they flare stylishly. The circular sides fit smoothly, the fullness being arranged in two inverted plaits at each side of the center closing.

Cashmere, Venetian, covert, poplin or cheviot are appropriate for this mode, with ribbon, silk, velvet, lace or braid for trimming.

To make the dress for a child eight years will require two and one-fourth yards of forty-four-inch material with three-eighths yard of twenty-inch material for yoke and collar. The pattern, No. 8095, is cut in sizes for children four, six, eight and ten years.

Lovers of kittens can't help being pleased at the dainty thermometer now shown. The thermometers are mounted on one end of a leather-covered mat, size about 4x5 inches. On the other end, covering nearly half of the space, is an artistic photo of a kitten in some characteristic pose. The photo is cut round, square or some other shape, and is glass-covered. On the back is a flap for the pretty desk accessory to rest upon. The leather on the face is in white, gray, green, black or red. Calendars are sometimes substituted for thermometers.

Handsomeness is one of the most popular of materials for covers for sofa pillows. Oriental designs are most approved. These pillow-covers are always made up with no trimming, only a slip along the edge double-stitched or French seamed. Occasionally a heavy cord, with the colors harmonizing, edges the cover.

One of the walking hats in a milliner's window is gray, with three bands of red velvet ribbon around the round crown and a huge rosette of narrow chenille ribbon in red on the front.

Narrow military gold braid for trimming hat crowns, dresses, collars, etc. comes in 10 and 17-yard pieces for 49 cents apiece. Spike-like gold ornaments for ribbon ends are from five cents up.

Wider gold braid is 11 cents a yard up to $1 and over, according to width, weight and whether it is fancy or plain, or solidly woven.

In a jeweler's window was shown a silver match safe for masculine use, that will likely be inflicted on many men by their sweethearts, sisters or wives Christmas. It was handsomely engraved. On one side there was a secret spring, that when pressed flew open and disclosed the picture of—well, some feminine friend, usually.

A Negro Scalded to Death.

Sanford Express.

Tom Buie, a young negro man employed at the veneering works here, died on Sunday afternoon from injuries received in a rather unusual manner. There is a large vat near the veneering works which is kept full of hot water where the blocks of timber are soaked before being worked up. Buie was helping to remove some blocks from the vat when he lost his equilibrium and fell into the hot water up to the armpits. The vat is some six or eight feet deep. Some one of the hands was standing near by and pulled the negro out almost by the time he struck the water. They stripped him of his clothing and found that the skin on his body was literally cooked from his shoulders to his ankles. His shoes protected his feet.

A THOUSAND TONGUES.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

"Who can finish this sentence?" asked the teacher. "A great statesman once said: 'I would rather be right than—'" There was a brief pause. Then there arose the promising son of a ward politician. "Please, Ma'am," he said, "the sentence should be: 'I would rather be right than get left.'"

Both makers and circulators of counterfeit commit fraud. Honest men will not deceive you into buying worthless counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is infallible for curing piles, sores, eczema and all skin diseases. Howard Gardner

He had come back to the farm from the city penniless, whereupon the following conversation ensued: "Buy any gold bricks?" "Narry brick." "Meet any bunco steers?" "Nary one." "Then, wot become of yer money?" "I got a cab driver to take me to the nearest hotel, b'gee!"

A Jackson, Miss., dispatch says that the State board of health has received official notice of two cases of yellow fever and one death at Brookhaven, the county seat of Lincoln county, about sixty miles from that city. The fatal case was that of D. E. Middleton.

EDITOR'S AWFUL FLIGHT.

F. M. Higgins, editor Seneca, (Ills.) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. It's the surest Pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Mrs. Muggins—"Is Mrs. B. Jones at all active in public life?" Mrs. Buggins—"Not at all. She doesn't belong to a single society for the suppression of anything."

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

Tommy—"Pop, what do the papers mean by an era of prosperity?" Tommy's Pop—"I guess they mean that fewer people will be striking us for loans."

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boscchee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boscchee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

Fortune's smiles, like those of a woman, are fickle.

Rev. A. G. Kirkman went to Lee's Chapel this afternoon to preach a funeral sermon.

The University of North Carolina defeated the Georgia University team at Raleigh Saturday by a score 53 to 0.

About forty members of the Odd Fellows attended the funeral of the late Jesse Hoskins at Guilford College yesterday.

Mr. L. M. Clymer will leave this afternoon for Elon College to attend the funeral of his late friend George Kernodle, who died last night.

Chief Scott had an inquiry last night from Goldsboro asking if a negro prisoner by the name of Will Hunter was wanted in this section.

Mrs. John Tyson, living about five miles north of town, died last night after a short illness. The remains were interred this afternoon at Lee's Chapel.

One contractor remarked today that since last fall he had been compelled to refuse twenty contracts in Greensboro because of having more work than he could do.

Elopers at Barge Office.

Of runaways there are scores every year at the barge office. It seems that whenever a married man has deserted his wife and children for a comely young girl, or a married woman has forsaken an elderly husband for a younger lover, they make straightaway for New York, as if it were the universal haven of refuge. In most cases the officials of the barge office manage to get the exact truth; for, having no marriage papers, "husband" and "wife" are separately questioned as to the time and the place the ceremony was solemnized. As both are lying, their stories frequently do not agree. It is usually the man who is first to confess to the runaway. This is because the woman has everything to lose and the man everything to gain, for he can desert her at will, even as he deserted wife and children abroad, and with even less compunc-tion of conscience. The woman, and sometimes the man, suffer deportation. If the latter has money he is allowed to remain, since there is no law to prevent him, unless, of course, the wife across the water has caused her husband's arrest through the foreign consul here. There is usually a property as well as a personal crime in these runaway events.—Ainslee's Magazine.

It Didn't Matter.

The Doctor—Above all things, madam, your husband mustn't worry.
Perhaps you'd better not show him my bill just now.

"But I did, doctor, and it didn't make any difference. He said he knew he couldn't pay it anyway."—N. Y. Life.

Idealization.

Ellen longed to see a pig killed. An older person suggested that such a desire on the part of a little girl was neither womanly nor nice. "Yes, I know," said Ellen, apologetically, "but mightn't we pretend that it was the execution of Mary Queen of Scots?"

into pneumonia or consumption. One and lung troubles quicker than any
